Basis of Charges Against I. C. Railroad.

HILLSIDE COAL COMPANY AS COMPLAINT.

APPEARS BEFORE STATE COMMISSION AT GREENVILLE.

DISCRIMINATION IS SHOWN.

Greenville, Ky., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—The Kentucky Railroad Commission is in session here with C. C. McChord and McChord, Ferguson present. Some forty witnesses are to be examined and the session will likely last for three days. William Eades, president of the Hillside Coal Company, is the complainant, charging the Illinois Central Railroad with discrimination against his company in the transportation of cars during the last eighteen months; also with delay in the transportation of the product of his mines, which is sold in Ohio, and only one witness, the complainant, has been examined.

This is the first case of this character ever presented to the commission, and is attracting deep interest. Traffic officials of the railroad company, Louisville and Chicago, are here, and prominent attorneys are representing both sides. After the termination of the session here the commission will examine witnesses in Paducah, Memphis, Chicago and Louisville.

LARGE ATTENDANCE

Already Coming In To State Normal School.

Richmond, Ky., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—The Eastern Kentucky Normal School is officially open at 8 o'clock this morning to the sixty-eight county delegates comprising the territory assigned by the Legislature that created the school. Forty-eight counties up to tonight have sent in their full quota of appointees allowed by law. In the school several changes have been taken place in the faculty. Miss Daisy Greenwood, of Mayville, will take charge of the seventh and eighth grades, in the place of Dr. Spencer, who will take up his work in the normal school proper as dean of women and professor of German.

Mrs. A. T. Mallon, of this city, who a few days ago was appointed matron, was once superintendent of Madison county schools. She was married to a man in Kentucky, and probably the first in the South to hold this position. Prof. Tharon, who has had charge of the normal school as director of the State certificate course of study and professor of mathematics, is from Crawford, of Bardonia, one of the best known educators in the state, assumes the directorship of the normal school. It is believed that fully 300 will enroll to-morrow.

Richmond is taking care of all students to-day, and board is being had at from $2.50 to $3 per week.

DIES OF INJURIES

Judge A. B. Cole's Death Comes Unexpectedly.

Mayville, Ky., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Judge A. B. Cole died very unexpectedly at his home here this morning. A few days ago he accompanied his daughter to the train and went aboard with her. As he was hastily leaving the train, which had started, he was thrown from the step violently, receiving injuries that were serious but not regarded fatal. He was supposed to be fast recovering when his sudden death came to-day.

Judge Cole was a twin brother of the late Alfred B. Cole, who was a prominent lawyer in this city and died a few years ago. Judge Cole removed from fronton, O., about two years ago to take up his law in Mayville. He was a well known and popular. He leaves a wife and several children, all grown.

NEARLY TOTAL CROP PLEDGED.

Franklin County Tobacco Growers In Pool.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Secretary W. T. Lee, of the Franklin County Tobacco Growers' Association, announced to-day that it has pooled 75 to 100 per cent. of the tobacco crop of the county. He left to-night for Winchester, where the District Convention of the association is to begin to-morrow. The convention will consider the question of admitting to the pool tobacco not yet in, but which may pass from the hands of the person raising it to a purchaser. Mr. Lee is secretary of the District Association, will urge that this privilege be allowed those who may go in at any time, and that the pool expire January 15, 1908.

To Vote On Road Bonds.

Paducah, Ky., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—In accordance with an opinion rendered by County Attorney Abin Barkley, the county cannot vote on the bonds for an obligation in excess of the contemplated revenues of any one year, the Fiscal Court, at special session, to be held next month will set aside for an election, to vote on the question of borrowing $500,000 for the permanent improvement of the county roads. Owing to the late start necessary in this account this year, it is probable that the question will be voted on at the regular election in the fall, so that work may start early in the spring of 1908.

Deaths At Fulton.

Fulton, Ky., Jan. 14.—Mrs. J. G. McDade, one of the best-known women of this county, died at her home near this city, aged forty-five years, after a brief illness. The deceased, who was a member of the Methodist Church, was the leader of a social circle of the foremost women of her section. She is survived by her husband, J. G. McDade, a son, Roy McDade, and three daughters, Misses Ruby, Lillian and Pearl McDade.

Aldermen Still Tied.

Paducah, Ky., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—After balloting nearly all night, the Board of Aldermen adjourned again without electing a president. The vote stood four for Earl Palmer, Republican, and four for E. D. Hannan, Democrat. Alderman Hannan was a son of Mrs. Thomas Hannan.

Superintendent To Resign.

Mrs. Susan Campbell, a well-known matron of this county, died yesterday near this city, after a prolonged illness of consumption. She was proceeded to the grave by her husband. She is survived by several grown children.

Allis Young Sells Farm.

Owingsville, Ky., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—Julius Allis Young, of this county, sold his farm, 323 acres, at $100 an acre. This land is on Flat creek, both county.

ENCOURAGE

Contained In Congressman's Letter On River Improvement

SWAGAR SHERLEY OUTLINES PROGRESS OF WORK.

NINE-FOOT STAGE TO MADISON NOW SEEMS TO BE ASSURED.

ENLARGING OF CANAL LATER.

A most encouraging letter from Congressman Swagar Sherley in regard to improvements on the Ohio river was read at the annual meeting of the Board of Trade yesterday. The letter was addressed to E. H. Bowen, president of the board, and outlined plans that may be carried out soon. The letter states that an appropriation will probably be made by Congress for the construction of a movable dam above the falls that will create a nine-foot stage of water between Louisville and Madison, Ind., and a six-foot pool to the mouth of the Kentucky river. Capt. Harry Burgess, engineer in charge of river improvements for the Louisville district and the Ohio River Improvement Board have recommended such an appropriation.

Congressman Sherley says that many projects for the improvement of the Ohio river will be deferred until the next bill is drawn. Among these projects will be one of widening the canal at this point. Congressman Sherley says that he hopes to see an appropriation in the present bill for the completion of more locks on the Kentucky river. After saying that publication of much as to the progress of the movement releases him from the need of stopping now, Congressman Sherley writes as follows:

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 14.—

(Special.)—Glorifier, James McCormick's good Hastings and Glory cut, making his first appearance at the meeting, was the magnet of attraction at the local course this afternoon. Always a public favorite, Glorifier was eagerly accepted in the field of six which faced the starter in the day's feature, the fourth on the card, by both large and small bettors alike. The latter wagered the "family jewels" on the old campaigner, while the plunging element loaded the ring to the guards, as well as all the neighboring pool-rooms.

"Bob" Tucker, who is easily the kingpin of the plungers, wagered $2,000 with Ed Alvey at the odds of 4 to 5, while he also included a like amount on the New York handi-capper, Charles Redick, who has had a phenomenal run of luck lately, also took a shy at the McCormick trick, and between them the ring received a so-called picnic fix.

A well-defined tip was circulated just previous to the running of the event that Glorifier was on the verge of a breakdown, which had been the result of the price on him soaring to 8 to 1.

If there was anything the matter with Glorifier he failed to display it this afternoon, as from the rise of the barrier until the finishing line he reached all day, and he did not do so until and let his big, long-striding fellow to the rest. All through the final quarter Glorifier was under double wraps, and at the end almost pulled to a walk to win by a length from the heavily-played Gold-mate.

The latter was the victim of a world of interference, but it was very doubtful whether he could have improved his position with clear sailing. James Redick, although the track was decidedly against him, was fast going third, and the steeplechase, which was the added attraction to the afternoon's card, was productive of a sparkling contest, the winner being returned in Dawson, an outsider, well ridden by T. Hagen, which tipped the favorite, Subador, in the last stride by the shortest of margins. Arabo, which bowed at the last jump, looked almost pulled to a walk to win by a length from the heavily-played Gold-mate.

TRYING TO STOP RACING IN STATE OF ARKANSAS.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 14.—[Special.]—The first bill introduced in the Arkansas Legislature when it convened to-day was a measure by Senator Amis making it a felony to conduct pool-rooms or horse racing in Arkansas. The bill prohibits all kinds of betting on horse racing and the removal of officers who fail or neglect to enforce the law. The penalty for betting is fine and imprisonment.

WAGGING THE DOG ON RACE DATES.

President Winn and Judge Price Return From New Orleans.

HAS CONFERENCE WITH CELLA

Great Crowds Attending Sport At Crescent City and Everybody Is Pleased.

LIVELY CHAT OF THE TURF.

ATT J. WINN, president of the American Turf Association, arrived in the city yesterday from New Orleans, accompanied by Judge Charles F. Price. Mr. Winn went to New Orleans to attend the annual meeting of the association, and also to confer with Louis A. Colla, the owner of the Douglas Park track, regarding the question of the racing dates for this city during the coming season.

"My conference with Mr. Colla did not amount to much," said President Winn last night. "We talked over the dates, as a matter of course, and each stated what he thought would be the best for the sport in this city, but we did not agree on anything. It was a conference marked by harmony, but the Kentucky Racing Commission, on one hand, and the Douglas Park, on the other, are both in the same boat. In view of this fact, it would not be courteous to the commission to state what each of us desired.

"So, we did not amalgamate, as several papers claimed that we would. The Courier-Journal printed the truth and the status of affairs before."

Mr. Winn had several talks on general lines, but no agreement was reached. He had several talks on general lines, but no agreement was reached. He had several talks on general lines, but no agreement was reached.
